

Need a job?

NEW! L&I Job-Search help available in Everett

Washington's Department of Labor & Industries is teaming up with WorkSource Everett to help injured workers find jobs. The one-year pilot starts August 1, 2013.

If you are:

- Located in the Everett area.
- Want to return to work.
- Don't have a job to return to.

Free, one-on-one WorkSource services:

- Transferrable-skills assessment, return-to-work plan.
- Résumé-writing, interviewing, online applications, etc.
- Job-search coaching, job referrals, hiring events.
- Networking assistance.
- Access to computers, Internet, phones, faxes.

Participation is 100% voluntary.

It won't affect your:

- Regular L&I processes, including time loss.
- Regular access to your Claim Manager or support staff.
- Regular medical treatment.

Want a job? Contact:

Walter Hughes

WorkSource employment liaison
3201 Smith Ave., Suite 330
Everett, WA 98201
Phone: 425-258-6341
Email: whughes@esd.wa.gov

FY13-477 [07-2013]

A partner of the americanjobcenter network